

Teaching and Learning Online Advanced Certification Series Monitoring Student Performance

Online Blackboard Training

Overview

In this workshop, you will gain knowledge of the tools and features that help monitor and evaluate student performance. First, you will learn how to set up, customize, and manage the Grade Center to meet your evaluation goals. Then, you will discover ways to use the Early Warning System to monitor and improve student performance. Finally, you will learn to use the Performance Dashboard, the Review Status feature, and the available reports and statistics to better track student progress.

The Teaching and Learning Online Advanced Certification Series extends and enhances your use of Blackboard Learn- Course Delivery* technology. Upon completion of the series, you will receive an “Advanced Teaching and Learning Online Certificate” issued by Blackboard Inc. The Teaching and Learning Online Advanced Certification Series consists of three courses:
